

Jayashree Krishna, Director

Jayashree has around 14 years of experience in Learning and development. She has worked with tier-1 companies like Wipro Technologies and IBM.

She has successfully managed large-scale organization-wide initiatives, to cater to the diverse learning needs of 45000+-employee base and established the distributed learning management solution for management studies at Wipro.

She conceptualized and set up the Wipro internal B-School, and the Microsoft Advanced Competency Centre for Wipro.

She was responsible for conceptualizing, designing and roll-out of the 22 day long campus induction module on Microsoft technologies.

Jayashree has been responsible for custom designing and facilitating soft skill modules for clients of TalentQuest, a company co-founded by her.

Prior to this she was employed with IBM to lead manage their On-boarding, Community and Learning initiatives for IBM India employees in the U.S.A.

Her Key Initiatives in the Corporate world includes :

- Established process for training for IBM India employees in U.S.A.
- Conceptualized, designed and delivered Onboarding kit for the IBM India employees in the U.S.A.
- Built alliance partnership with 21 different Management schools, product vendors, and service providers.
- Conceptualized and rolled out the Technology Readiness Framework for Wipro.
- Actively participated in campus selection panels, conducted the campus induction training Microsoft Stream for Wipro.

Prior to this she worked for Bangalore University in the areas of Syllabus revision for B.Sc and MCA. She was actively involved in examination work of the University in terms of Paper setting and evaluation for B.Sc, and MCA.

She is proficient in Project Management, design and development on Microsoft Visual Studio 6.0 Platform. Prototyping the Point of Sale Solution for Retail is one of the key projects she managed.

Jayashree is a post graduate in Computer science, with a General Management Certification from IIM –Bangalore. She is a certified PMP from Project Management Institute.