

Naren Koduvattat, Managing Director

Naren has more than 21 years of international career experience with Tier-1 IT services companies.

Prior to founding I-Point, he was Vice President & IBU head at Infosys, reporting to COO & Board.

He was a Tier-1 member of Infosys Leadership team, member of HR policy council and an in-house expert on mentoring and performance management.

He is a member of the NITK senate. He was managing trustee of Prerana, the social service trust of Infoscions.

Naren has had a distinguished career with PSI Data Systems (1987-1993) and Infosys Technologies (1993-2008) and has played various roles from software engineer to Vice President responsible for a P&L business unit head. Some of the leadership roles he played in the recent past are :

- Head of Development Center : responsible for establishing & growing Infosys' Mangalore center from 60 people to 2000+ people
- Head of Delivery : responsible for projects delivery for all customers in Americas' west coast
- Business unit head : responsible for growth and profitability of independent business unit (P&L unit) of the company with annual turnover of 200+ MUSD/p.a, reporting to group COO.

He has established executive client relationships with many Fortune 500 companies and partner organizations.

He brings rich experience in the areas of visioning, strategy, conceptualization and design and has rolled out many org-wide change initiatives. He also bring extensive experience in the areas of leadership development and mentoring. He has undergone numerous leadership training programs, within and outside india.

As a Tier-1 member of Infosys leadership, he has been conceptualizing and delivering HR, leadership development and mentoring programs. As a member of Infosys policy council, he was involved in policy making and implementation in the areas of hiring, compensation & benefits, talent development and employee engagement.

Naren has worked and lived in various countries and cities of the world. Since 1997 he has been based in Mangalore, Karnataka. He has been part of many social activities including member of Karnataks Govt's Coastal Agenda Task Force, member of NITK senate and managing trustee of "Prerana", a social service organization.